Approaches for combating domestic violence of the City of Bonn

Equal Opportunity-Office of the city of Bonn

Tasks according to the law:

- Equality of men and women
- Advisory in case of discrimination
- Compatibility of family and work
- Publicity to various topics

One main focus of the equal opportunity office is „violence against women“ in its varying forms.

This means:

- informations concerning offers of help
- interlinking with the actors in the municipality, the country and the state
- development and care of a network to improve the situation of women who suffered violence

In every year, the 25th of November is the official International Day for the elimination of violence against women.

For years, the Equal Opportunity Office of Bonn has taken and takes this day to inform the public of the different ways of violence against women.

At the same time we want to inform women about the different counselling centres and safe facilities.

It was the first year with COVID and the women, who experienced violence could not go out of home or can make a phonecall to get help. To go to the Pharmacie was one possibility to leave home, without risk or being asked why.

Therefore we asked all pharmacies in Bonn to put our posters into their windows and thus support our campaign.

Beratungsstelle
gegen sexualisierte
Gewalt

Cooperation in networks: mutual information, joint events, work on joint solutions for problem areas, campaigns, referral

In the pandemic: Increase in counseling numbers, not only acute violence, but also crises due to previous trauma, at the same time few external contact persons, e.g. for children and adolescents in lockdown

Measures in lockdown:

Expansion of digital offers: increased telephone advice, alternative offers (advice walks), advice in person: hygiene concepts; additional rooms for women's shelters

Information campaigns:

Where can I get help in which situations? Who can I turn to in lockdown? Who is responsible for which topic:

Poster campaigns, info screens, information in social networks
